

Brandywine July 13th / 53

Sir

Mrs. McKennick, wife of William McKennick, was dangerously ill last night. The anxiety of her husband being away, probably, brought on premature confinement
It is better that he remain with her for the present.

Respectfully
J. P. Tracey M. D.

Capt. Smith In Pm A

Doctor Tracy relation to McRinick

Referring to Lammot Lambert's Company during the Civil war -