

Old Residence in Hagley Yard.

Lower Hagley Woods, built in 1828

This building was used by the Bark Mill or Tanning Mill which occupied the site prior to the powder mills. For many years the building was used as "The Hagley Office"

The residence of Rowford Dawes, former owner, the cypress trees below
On the left in the distance can be seen the Millwright and this house machine shops used in the early days of the Company. were in his
- and on the right among the trees, the Eagle Rolling (Wheel) garden.
Mills are visible. For many years these mills were used Exclusively for incorporating the famous "Eagle" grade of Du Pont Gunpowder, hence the name

P.S.D.
5, 20, '43

J. A. Bracklem
March 13, 1928