

ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS
American Freedom and Progress since 1895

Reserve Relations Office
Hq., THIRD Naval District
90 Church Street
New York 7, New York

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 8, 1957

OFFICIAL U.S. NAVY PHOTOGRAPH

Displaying the Department of Defense Reserve Award Pennant presented to the National Association of Manufacturers, New York City, for rendering "outstanding cooperation" to Reservists and Reserve activities are representatives of the Armed Forces and executives of the firm. The group attended presentation ceremonies held at the firm's headquarters, New York City, August 6, 1957.

The Award, also consisting of a certificate of citation, was presented in the name of Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, by Rear Admiral Milton E. Miles, (center) Commandant, THIRD Naval District to Mr. Charles R. Sligh, Jr., (third from left) Executive Vice President of the firm.

Pictured are: (left to right) Mr. Francis J. Sullivan, a Lieutenant Commander in the Naval Reserve, who initiated the recommendation which resulted in the firm's receiving recognition by the Defense Department; Major General Raymond E. Bell, USA, Chief, U.S. Army Military District, N.Y.; Mr. Sligh; Rear Admiral Miles; Rear Admiral H. C. Perkins, USCG, Commander, Third Coast Guard District; Colonel B. C. Rose, USAF, Commandant, N.Y. Air Reserve Center and Lieutenant Colonel Henry D. Strunk, USMC, Deputy Director for Reserve, 1st Marine Corps Reserve and Recruitment Dist.