

To All True Americans
THREE CHEERS FOR SEVENTY-SIX

THE NATIONAL CENTENNIAL ANTHEM,

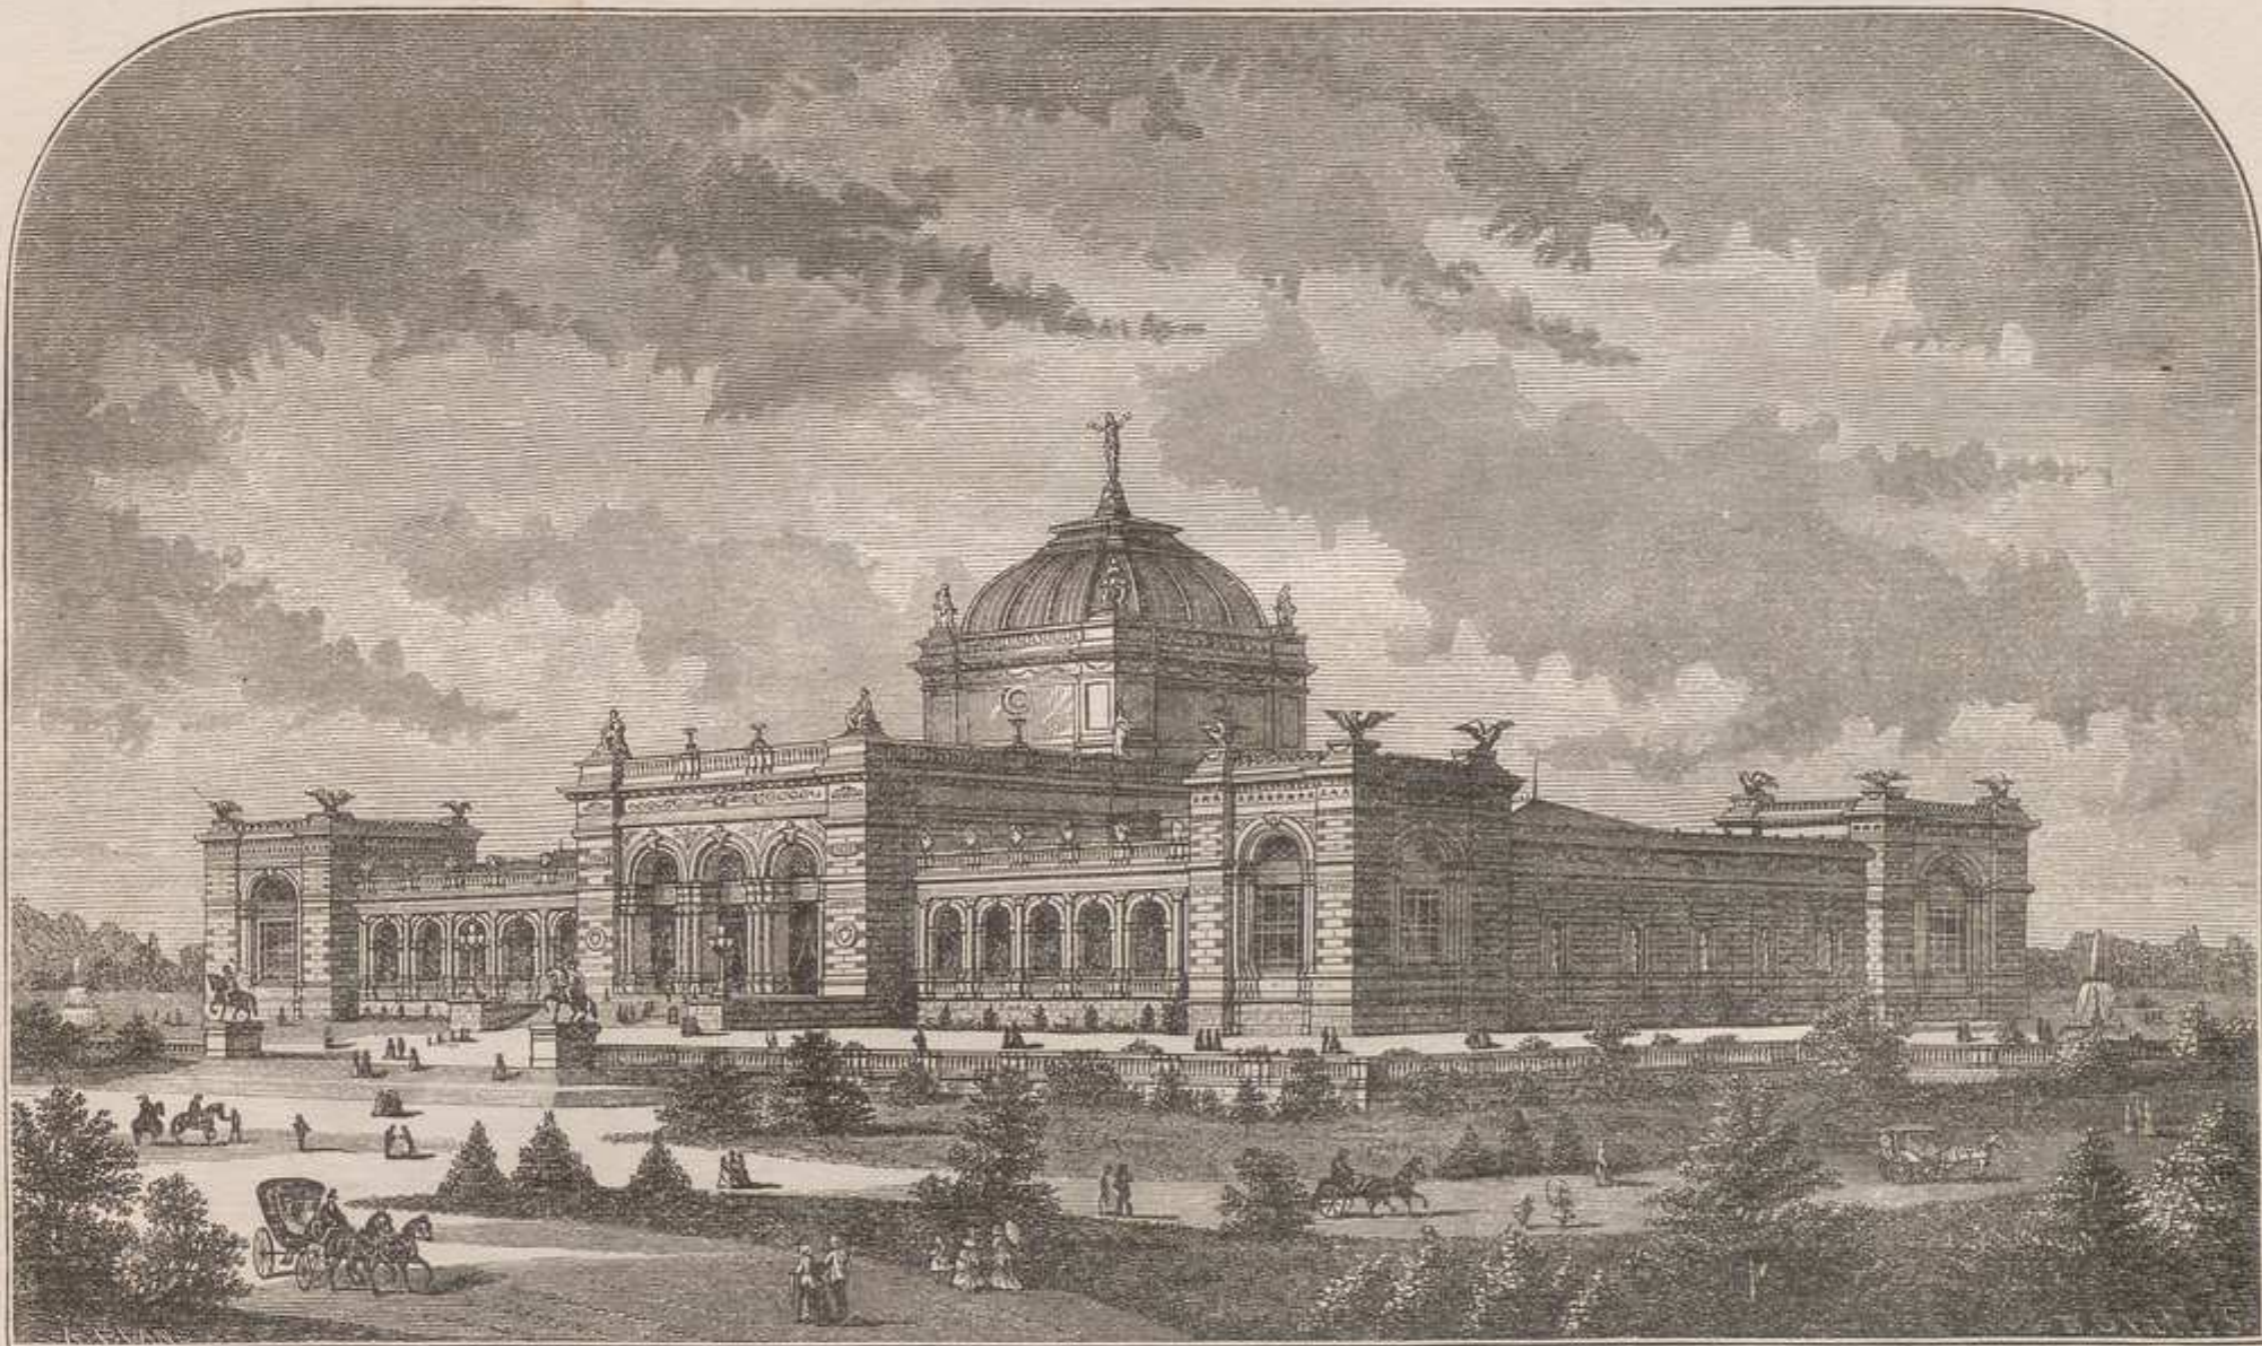

—WRITTEN BY—

HARRIET B. MCKEEVER.

MUSIC COMPOSED, AND ARRANGED AS SOLO WITH AN ACCOMPANIMENT, OR QUARTETTE BY JOHN GRAFF.

(Late Organist of St. Andrew's, St. Clement's and Old Christ Church.)

365 feet long.

MEMORIAL HALL.

210 feet wide.

TO REMAIN WHEN ALL ELSE OF THE INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION SHALL BE FORGOTTEN.

"Words true and strong must mark this day in rolling years to come;
A glorious tryst to cheer our way in this our native home;
Then let us clasp our brother's hand, nor ask from whence he came;
Enough for Patriot true to know—American his name."

PHILADELPHIA:

PUBLISHED BY

A. ALLMUTH,

140 S. ELEVENTH ST.

Entered according to Act of Congress A. D. 1871, by JOHN GRAFF, in the office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington.

NATIONAL CENTENNIAL

ANTHEM:

1776-1876.

Words by HARRIET B. MC KEEVER.

Music by JOHN GRAFF.

Piano introduction for the National Centennial Anthem, page 2. The music is in 2/4 time and consists of two staves (treble and bass clef). It features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, with chords in the bass line.

Vocal and piano accompaniment for the National Centennial Anthem, page 2. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The music is in 2/4 time. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Hur - rah the mountain ech - oes ring, Hur - rah the rol - ling sea, Hur -
 2. We join to sing of dark days past, When trampled by the foe, Eyes
 3. Who could have seen with prophet's eye, While yet our march was slow Stars

4. By fac - tion rent bap - tized in blood Our sor - rows who can know Trans -
 5. On - ward we march the lit - tle one is now a gi - ant strong 'Neath
 6. Words true and strong must mark this day In rol - ling years to come A

Vocal and piano accompaniment for the National Centennial Anthem, page 3. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The music is in 2/4 time. The lyrics are as follows:

rah the grand old for - ests sing The an - them of the free Un - to the sun face to the blast One hun - dred years a - go But thir - ty - sev'n in freedom's sky One hun - dred years a - go Un - formed we rose from that dark flood E - lev - en years a - go U - the bright blaze of freedom's sun We sing our na - tions song God's glo - rious trust to cheer our way In this our na - tive home Then

Vocal and piano accompaniment for the National Centennial Anthem, page 3. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The music is in 2/4 time. The lyrics are as follows:

der the ea - gle were we born Where West - ern riv - ers flow Cru - thir - teen stars in Free - dom's sky Our an - cient flag could show Lit der our flag our no - ble dead With ho - som to the foe True al - ted now from North to South From Lake to South - ern Sea We o - pen book on - ly one priest Our press our schools all free Like let us clasp our broth - ers hand Nor ask from whence he came E -

died in tem-pest rock'd in storm One hun-dred years a-go.
 by the sun of lib-er-ty One hun-dred years a-go.
 to their coun-try ground and bled One hun-dred years a-go.

stand to- stay in pha-lanx strong One na-tion of the free,
 the broad Ban-ter of the east Spreads out great Free-don's tree.
 nough for Pa-triots true to know A-mer-i-can his name.

Three cheers for good old seven-ty-six, that plan-ted freedom's tree and Three cheers for good old seven-ty-six, that plan-ted freedom's tree and three times three for seven-ty-six that halls a na-tion free.

 three times three for seven-ty-six that halls a na-tion free.

7.
 Some names there are not born to die
 And Washington is one
 Who raised our nation's banner high
 America's great son.
 A martyred name embalmed in tears
 Comes whispered soft and low
 Changing our glad exultant cheers
 To memory's notes of woe.

Three cheers etc.

8.
 God over all, and all for God
 This be our Nations hymn
 His be our guiding staff and rod
 Our Country all for Him
 Where right not might shall rule the land
 In Freedom's favored home
 Where right not greed shall nerve the hand
 In centuries to come.

Three cheers etc.

9.
 Millions on millions join our song
 And hail our wondrous way
 Let all the bells ring clear and strong
 On this Centennial day.
 Now hail Columbia, sing aloud
 For every brilliant star
 That glitters in our banner proud
 Hurrah Hurrah Hurrah.
 Three cheers etc

